

SC PrismFX:
Opening up opportunities
for global corporates

End to end digital FX management

Cross-border growth brings complexity across payments, collections and FX. To scale with confidence, businesses need a smarter way to simplify workflows, streamline documentation and connect operations across entities and markets.

SC PrismFX brings this together in a single connected ecosystem through Straight2Bank Flowbanker, a fully digital platform for managing FX risk, liquidity and regulatory requirements end-to-end.

Built for corporates, multinationals and their Regional Trade Centres (RTCs), SC Prism FX enables cross-border operations across high-growth markets, supporting businesses to scale faster, with greater control and efficiency.

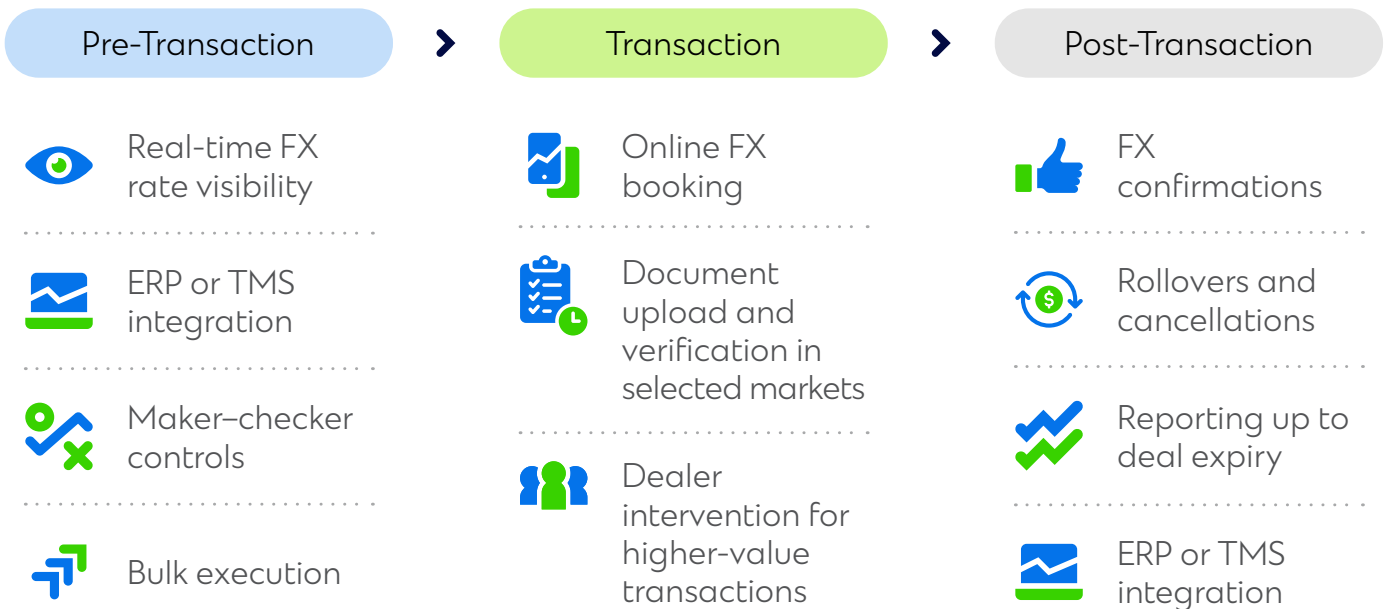

Five ways SC PrismFX can help you unlock opportunities

- 01 Digitalise end-to-end FX workflows by replacing manual, fragmented processes with integrated online journeys - without disrupting existing business operations.
- 02 Improve visibility and control through consolidated reporting and a single, end-to-end view of FX activities across entities and markets.
- 03 Integrate FX risk management into daily operations by seamlessly embedding FX Spot, Forwards and related instruments into payment and collection workflows.
- 04 Centralise FX execution and oversight across geographically dispersed entities using consistent, standardised processes from a single location.
- 05 Strengthen governance and regulatory compliance through built-in controls such as maker-checker and workflows designed for restricted and regulated markets.

A single digital platform to initiate, manage, and monitor FX across your transaction lifecycle

Through Straight2Bank Flowbanker, SC PrismFX supports corporates before, during and after FX execution, delivering transparency and control at every stage of the transaction lifecycle, including FX Spot and Forwards, rollovers and cancellations, document upload and linkage, and workflows aligned to local regulatory requirements.

See it in action: How SC PrismFX helps global corporates in their need for centralising FX

- Need:

A multinational corporation with local entities across multiple countries and a RTC in Singapore sought to centralise FX booking while allowing local offices to upload supporting documentation.

- Solution:

Using Straight2Bank Flowbanker, FX is automatically booked for lower-value transactions, while higher-value transactions are routed to the RTC for active FX management with rate visibility prior to execution.

- Key Results:

A materiality-based approach: active trading where it matters, automation where it doesn't

Centralised FX management with local regulatory alignment

Improved visibility and control over FX exposures

Reduced operational complexity through standardised workflows

For SCB Australia: Standard Chartered Bank has been granted an authority to carry on a banking business in Australia pursuant to section 9 of the Banking Act 1959 of Australia ("Banking Act") and is a foreign authorised deposit taking institution ("ADI") within the meaning of the Banking Act. Provisions in the Banking Act for the protection of depositors generally do not apply to foreign ADIs including Standard Chartered Bank. For example, depositors with foreign ADIs do not receive the benefit of the following protections:

- deposits are not covered by the financial claims scheme and are not guaranteed by the Australian Government;
- depositors do not receive priority ahead of amounts owed to other creditors. This means that if a foreign ADI were unable to meet its obligations or otherwise is in financial difficulties and ceases to make payments, its depositors in Australia would not receive priority for repayment of their deposits from the foreign ADI's assets in Australia; and
- a foreign ADI is not required to hold assets in Australia to cover its deposit liabilities in Australia. This means that if the foreign ADI were unable to meet its obligations or otherwise is in financial difficulty and ceases to make payments, it is uncertain whether depositors would be able to access the full amount of their deposit.
- The Banking Code of Practice 2020 (as amended, supplemented, revised, replaced and/or restated from time to time) does not apply to any transaction or service made available by Standard Chartered Bank in Australia.
