Section I – Important Information

Notes pertaining to this schedule of fees and charges (“Schedule”):

1. This Schedule sets out the pricing information relating to the products and services that the private banking division of Standard Chartered Bank (Singapore) Limited (“Bank”) may make available to you;
2. Assets under Management (“AUM”) includes all deposits and investments held by you, or by your relationship group as defined by the Private Bank across all our booking centres. It does not include loans and insurance premiums;
3. The Bank may not charge for payments made to another Standard Chartered Bank entity, however a payment may be charged by the recipient booking centre in certain countries;
4. The Bank may earn a commission, mark-up or receive a monetary benefit when executing certain transactions for your account;
5. In addition to the pricing information set out in this Schedule, the following additional fees, charges or out-of-pocket expenses may apply:
  - a. third-party charges in addition to the pricing information set out in this Schedule;
  - b. any out-of-pocket expenses paid by the Bank including but not limited to expenses incurred from stock delivery of debt securities, transaction and compensation levies, trading fees, stamp duty, postage, cable charges, correspondent bank charges, withholding taxes, stock deposit fees, nominee services and corporate actions and other handling charges;
  - c. extra fees / charges for the additional amount of work that the Bank is required to undertake if the Bank agrees to (i) provide a service or product to you and (ii) such product or service requires exceptional handling;
  - d. extra fees / charges where we provide advice on more complex matters or certain products;
6. Transactions involving certain assets and investment types may be subject to pricing which is different from that stated in this Schedule. The Bank will inform you if the pricing for any transaction / investment exceeds the pricing information that is stated in this Schedule;
7. The Bank reserves the right to amend or vary any fees and charges at any time. The pricing information in this Schedule is subject to change and the Bank will notify you of such changes from time to time with at least 30 days’ prior notice (provided that such changes are within the control of the Bank);
8. Goods and services tax (GST) will be charged by the Bank, where applicable;
9. This Schedule does not constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation to offer to buy or sell any securities or any other financial instrument, to effect any transaction or to provide any service. Please note that not all products and services are available to citizens or residents of all countries;
10. With respect to securitised products, any product issuer / provider, bookrunner or arranger that has “Standard Chartered” in its name is an affiliate of Standard Chartered Bank;
11. The Bank will act as principal when providing each type of product / investment / service described in Section II – Trading and Investments of this Schedule to you, except that the Bank will act as agent with respect to the (i) sale or purchase of equities for your account (ii) the sale or purchase of investment funds and (iii) the sale or purchase of Private Equity Funds;
12. Product costs and charges are associated with the manufacturing and managing of a financial instrument. Such costs and charges are incurred or specified by the manufacturer of that financial instrument and are either applied to that financial instrument or taken into account in the overall pricing of that financial instrument. The Bank generally quotes an “all-in” price for a transaction. Such “all-in” price includes such costs and charges, and sales and trading mark-ups (if any). If following such “all-in” price quotation for a transaction, the Bank is able to execute that transaction at a better interbank price, then the Bank will endeavor to pass on the benefit from such price improvement to you. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Bank in its discretion determines that it is not operationally feasible to pass on the benefit from such price improvement to you (applicable to FX Spot, FX and Rates over-the-counter derivatives contracts), the Bank shall be entitled to retain all of the benefit from such price improvement.
13. The Bank may reduce its fees and charges from time to time at its discretion. The contract note for a transaction may also contain further disclosure of monetary benefits that may be applicable to such transaction. Please note that if there is any inconsistency between the information set out in (i) a contract note for a transaction and (ii) this Schedule, the information set out in the contract note will prevail;
14. The benefits receivable as described in this Schedule are subject to any pre-sale process and / or documentation providing otherwise;
15. The Bank shall debit fees and charges from your account. Fees and charges may also be charged or deducted in another currency equivalent to the amount stated using a rate the Bank reasonably considers appropriate;
16. Fees and charges for transactions not listed above will be quoted upon request;
17. All products and services are subject to applicable terms and conditions. All terms and conditions are available by contacting us.

Section II – Trading and Investments

Unless stated otherwise, the fees or charges will be calculated as the higher of a percentage of the transaction / notional (where applicable) value or the applicable minimum charge. For all other securities and investments, charges will be separately disclosed in the product term sheet.

Please contact your Relationship Manager for details on the exact charges which will be debited from your account.

* As stipulated by the Fund House if their max <= 3%, else cap of 3% applies  Fee stated is the Annual Service Fee

(1) This relates to any rebate, commission or fee that the Bank receives from the issuer (and is in addition) to the spread described under "Fixed Income". This rebate, commission or fee will be disclosed to the client on a pre-trade basis.

(2) Fees and charges incurred by the Bank as well as profit margins, if any, are inherently contained and subsumed into the calculation of the interest rate, interest amounts and / or other variables of the product. A break fee as quoted by the Relationship Manager is levied for early termination to cover the economic cost and processing cost of early termination prior to the agreed maturity date.

(3) Benefits received by the Bank following the client's purchase / sale of this product will vary depending upon a number of factors including but not limited to the notional amount, product tenor, market conditions, liquidity, etc.

(4) Standard Chartered may receive up to 70% of the total annual management fee from the fund manager and is stipulated in the distribution agreement between Standard Chartered and the respective fund manager. This fee supports the provision of ongoing services such as continuing due diligence on funds / fund issuers, maintenance of client / front office platforms as well as post sales servicing aspects such as client statements, corporate actions amongst others

(5) The trailer fee that Standard Chartered is permitted to receive from the product provider is generally stipulated in the distribution agreement between the Standard Chartered and the product provider or/and the subscription agreement between the Bank's nominee and the product provider. The fee is a percentage of committed amount or invested amount and is generally capped at 1%. The trailer fee can have a limited period.

(6) Where the Bank acts as the Investment Advisor, the Bank will receive an Investment Advisor Fee in the range of 0.1% to 0.5% from the Fund House or Investment Manager in addition to the trailer fees. The Investment Advisor Fee is a percentage of the Assets Under Management on a per annum basis. The Investment Advisory Fee which is paid to the Bank by the Fund House or Investment Manager, is separate from the fees or charges that the Bank charges the clients when transacting in Investment Funds.

(7) The Bank may receive a sponsor fee directly from the General Partner or Investment Manager of the Private Equity Fund and the Hedge Fund. The sponsor fee is a fixed percentage of a committed amount (when the strategy is subject to several capital calls) or invested amount (when all the committed amount is called at the subscription date). The fee is not charged to the clients and will not affect the performance of the investment. The fee is disclosed in the offering documents and in the General Partner agreements. It ranges from 0% to 3% of the committed or invested amount. The sponsor fee percentage may vary based on the total amount of commitments collected by the Bank.

(8) A "Set-up" fee will be charged for the initial setting up of a new mandate, creating or switching to another mandate or transferring an account / a mandate to a different Booking Centre.

(9) A "Top-up" fee will be charged for topping up investment amounts of existing mandates.

(10) A "Transfer Fee" will be charged for transferring a mandate to a different Booking Centre.

Section III – General Banking Services

Unless stated otherwise, fees or charges will be calculated as the higher of a percentage of the transaction value or the applicable minimum charge. For all other securities and investments, charges will be separately disclosed in the product term sheet.
