Important Notice

Consensus financial estimates set out above are presented as of 21 July 2026

The consensus estimates are line-by-line averages based on estimates received by Standard Chartered PLC (“Standard Chartered”) from certain independent analysts covering Standard Chartered.

15 analysts’ forecasts have been included in the consensus for second quarter 2026 and 16 analysts’ forecasts have been included for full year 2026, 2027 and 2028. Standard Chartered Investor Relations has included sell-side analyst estimates that, to the best of Standard Chartered’s knowledge, cover Standard Chartered via written research reports on a regular basis and provide estimates for each of the line items appearing in the tables above for (at least) the next three financial years. Standard Chartered is not aware of, nor has it investigated, the existence of any interests or conflicts of interest of the contributors that could compromise the objectivity of the contributed information.

Standard Chartered reserves the right (in its absolute discretion) to exclude submissions including where estimates have not been updated following the last reported results (whether quarterly or otherwise), have not been updated to reflect significant announcements or events, or contain a manifest error. The selection of the analysts included in the consensus figures has not been made on the basis of the analysts’ opinions or recommendations in respect of Standard Chartered. In preparing the consensus figures, Standard Chartered Investor Relations may make certain adjustments to ensure a standardised basis of preparation.

The opinions, forecasts, estimates, projections, predictions and/or recommendations regarding Standard Chartered’s performance or financial position made by the aforementioned analysts, and the aggregated consensus information derived therefrom, are those of the analysts alone and do not represent the opinions, forecasts, estimates, predictions and/or recommendations of Standard Chartered or its directors or management. Standard Chartered does not endorse or concur with any of such analysts’ opinions, forecasts, estimates, projections, predictions and/or recommendations. Standard Chartered accepts no liability for the selection, accuracy or completeness of the analysts’ opinions, forecasts, estimates, projections, predictions and/or recommendations.

The consensus information may contain certain “forward looking” statements, estimates and forecasts based upon current expectations, beliefs or assumptions about future events. These statements, estimates and forecasts are subject to known and unknown risks and uncertainties and other factors that could cause actual results to differ from those estimated or forecast in the consensus information.

Standard Chartered has not verified any of the information it has received and none of Standard Chartered, its affiliates or their respective directors, officers and employees make any representation or warranty, express or implied, as to, or accept any responsibility for, the accuracy or completeness of the consensus information or otherwise endorse or concur with any of the consensus information.

The date of presentation of the consensus financial estimates is set out above. Standard Chartered does not assume any responsibility to update, revise or supplement any consensus information. This consensus summary is being provided for informational purposes only and is not intended to, nor does it, constitute financial or investment advice or any solicitation to buy, hold or sell securities or other financial instruments. None of Standard Chartered, its affiliates or their respective directors, officers, employees and agents shall accept any liability whatsoever for any loss or other consequences of any reliance upon or actions taken based on any of the information in this consensus summary.

Standard Chartered will not provide any commentary on the consensus figures. The circulation of consensus figures by Standard Chartered is not mandatory and Standard Chartered may amend its practice on this, or cease to provide consensus estimates at any time.

The receipt and/or distribution of the consensus information may, in certain jurisdictions, be restricted by legal or regulatory requirements. Recipients are required to inform themselves about and observe any such requirements.

For the avoidance of doubt, where analysts, investors or any other parties wish to include or refer to the Standard Chartered consensus information (or any other historic consensus information in connection with Standard Chartered) in other documents or materials, including but not limited to published research, it must be appropriately cited as a “company compiled consensus” with the relevant “as at” date of publication noted together with a clear statement that provides that “any such use shall be subject always to the terms of the disclaimer contained in such Standard Chartered consensus information”.
