Naser Ezaz Bijoy appointed CEO of Standard Chartered Bangladesh

Standard Chartered Bank Bangladesh has recently announced the appointment of Naser Ezaz Bijoy as its Chief Executive Officer, with effect from November 07, 2017. Abrar A. Anwar, who has led the Standard Chartered franchise in Bangladesh since 2015, has taken on the role of CEO, Malaysia.

Naser Ezaz Bijoy has been with the Bank for more than 24 years and has held a number of roles in Corporate Banking, Risk and Audit in Asia, Middle East and Africa. He also brings onboard deep relationships with regulators, having worked closely with central banks in Bangladesh, UAE, Mauritius and Vietnam, and as a key member of Bangladesh Bank Focus Group on preparing the framework on credit risk management for banks in Bangladesh.

Anna Marrs, Regional CEO, ASEAN and South Asia, Standard Chartered Bank said, “Naser is a strong leader and has a deep understanding of the Bangladesh financial sector and clients’ needs. During the past two decades of his career with Standard Chartered, he has made significant contributions in his various roles across the Bank in multiple geographies. Naser’s international experience, coupled with his deep local knowledge make him an ideal leader of the Bank in Bangladesh.”

Commenting on his appointment, Naser Ezaz Bijoy said, “It is an honour to be appointed CEO for Standard Chartered Bangladesh. The economy of Bangladesh has shown remarkable progress over the last decade and Standard Chartered Bank is very well positioned to continue to be a partner in progress on this amazing journey. I thank our clients, staff, regulators and the communities for the trust placed in the bank, and we remain committed to serving them with world-class financial products and services.”
