Hari Raya Celebration for Standard Chartered employees

Bandar Seri Begawan, 15 July 2017 – Standard Chartered Bank recently organised a Hari Raya gathering at the main office for its employees as a sign of gratitude and to forge closer ties while seek forgiveness among the workforce.

The annual event was one of Standard Chartered's many ways of showing appreciation towards its staff for their support over the years. Staffs were treated to a buffet spread which included traditional Raya favourites, such as, Laksa, Beriyani, assortments of Raya cakes and many more. The office pantry where the Hari Raya Open office was held, was adorned with overhanging 'ketupat' decorations and the walls were decked with green packets, twinkle lights and greeting cards, making the venue extra festive.

Laila Li, Standard Chartered Bank's Head of Human Resource said

"Each year, we always look forward to celebrating Hari Raya with our colleagues. The event was held to celebrate and strengthen the relationship among staff and aims to further strengthen the ties with other departments. While we get to know our colleagues in the workplace, celebrations such as the Hari Raya gathering helps to deepen deeper understanding of each other's religious beliefs, traditions and customs. At Standard Chartered Bank, we believe striking a healthy balance between work and play helps to cultivate a great working environment."
