10% rebate for festive shopping with Standard Chartered Cards

6 May 2017, Bandar Seri Begawan – Festive shoppers now have an additional reason to use their Standard Chartered Credit or Debit cards while getting ready for the upcoming joyous Raya season with Standard Chartered's attractive 10% rebate from now till 25 June 2017.

The 10% rebate, capped at BND50, is limited to the first 800 Credit and Debit card holders during the promotion period at popular local and online fashion houses such as Zalora, Fashionvalet and Poplook as well as local fashion and fabric stores such as L'Orient, Melur, SR Design, Hokko Trading and Nazmi, to name a few. Customers who accumulate total card spend of BND100 at the participating partners will be eligible for the rebate.

Wong Li Li, Acting Head of Retail Products & Segments said:

“At Standard Chartered, we understand the joy and excitement that the festive Raya season brings and these offers add to the delight for our customers and clients as they gear up for the celebrations. We are delighted to support our local retailers through this promotion while offering greater savings for our mutual customers and clients.”

Standard Chartered Bank Brunei credit cards are globally recognised with Visa and MasterCard and enjoy rewards points with every dollar spent which can be redeemed instantly for more than 100+ rewards vouchers at the bank's eKiosks.
