Standard Chartered rewards client with 1 Million Royal Skies Miles

Bandar Seri Begawan, 19 January 2018 – Standard Chartered Bank rewarded one lucky client with 1 million Royal Skies points as part of their recent Year End Cards Special promotion. The promotion ran from 15 September to 31 December 2017, where Standard Chartered credit and debit card holders could accumulate their card spending to earn chances to win Royal Skies miles.

In addition to the grand prize of 1 Million Royal Skies points, 10 runner up winners were also rewarded with 100,000 Royal Skies points each.

Wong Li Li, Head of Retail Products & Segments said:

“Standard Chartered is delighted that we are able to partner with Royal Skies for this Year End Cards Special promotion. I would like to congratulate the winners of our Year End Cards promotion, and to let the rest of our clients know that this year will see more exciting promotions and enhancements in the pipeline. Standard Chartered will continue to offer innovative campaigns for our customers and clients giving them greater value and rewards for their loyalty and support.”

Standard Chartered Bank invited all 11 finalists to their Priority Banking Centre in Gadong, where representatives and management from Standard Chartered Bank, Royal Skies, and members of the media attended.

The 11 finalists were randomly drawn internally, witnessed by a representative from the Legal and Compliance team, the Service Quality team, the Retail Products and Segment team, and the Brand and Marketing team. This was to ensure that the finalists were drawn fairly.

Finalists were invited to open the airplane window mock up to reveal whether they won 100,000 Royal Skies miles, or were the Grand prize winner. At the end, [GRAND PRIZE WINNER'S NAME] opened the winning window, winning him/herself with 1 Million Royal Skies miles!

The finalists are as follows:
