Standard Chartered opens ATM at NAAFI, Seria

Bandar Seri Begawan, 7 November 2017 – Standard Chartered has opened a new ATM located at the NAAFI Area of the British Brunei Garrison in Seria.

The network enhancement solidifies Standard Chartered's support and its relationship with the British Brunei Forces as well as residents and clients within the location.

On hand to officiate the opening was Standard Chartered CEO, Anirvan G. Dastidar and Commanding Officer of the British Forces Brunei, Lieutenant Colonel Jamie Murray.

Anirvan, in his welcoming remarks said:

“Standard Chartered has seen a lot of enhancements this year such as launching of our Debit Card and Mobile App, giving our customers more banking convenience. We've also reconfigured our network in response to our customers' needs such as moving an ATM to Jerudong Park and now today, having an ATM within the Garrison grounds to serve more than 1,000 British Forces and their families.”
