Standard Chartered Bank Rewards Business Clients

2 February 2016, Bandar Seri Begawan – Business clients were rewarded with prizes for their businesses at yesterday's Foreign Currency Transaction draw held at the Standard Chartered Gadong Priority Banking Centre.

Last year, from 26 October to 31 December, Standard Chartered Bank held a Foreign Currency Transaction promotion which rewarded its business clients. Clients who made telegraphic transfers or account-to-account transfers were entitled to one for every BND50,000 transferred. On top of that, clients who made telegraphic transfers during the promotional period also had local fees waived.

Eng Siok Tin, Head of Client Relationships said:

“Our business clients, are an integral part of our business. We would like to continue to partner with our clients to ensure that we can provide them with the best corporate service that is required to help their business grow. With our Foreign Currency Transaction promotion, we recognise that our clients have to do cross-border banking, and this is one way we can reward them for banking with us.”

Three companies were randomly drawn internally, whereby Petrokon Utama Sdn Bhd won a Canon Maxify 4-in-1 printer, Wee Mey Trading Company won a full day meeting package at the Executive Ballroom of the Radisson Hotel, and Kim Hoe Hardware Sdn Bhd won a Canon Multimedia Projector LV-WX300.
