THE GREATEST RACE ON EARTH HAS STARTED!

4 challenging marathons, 4 exotic cities

Largest prize pool in athletics

24 October 2005, Shanghai – The Greatest Race on Earth has started successfully in Nairobi yesterday. LIU Xiaohuan of the Chinese Team, the only Asian female running in the race, finished in third position with a time of 02:50:13, and placed an impressive 10th position overall in the Nairobi Marathon. Xiaohuan said, “I wanted to do better. It was my first time running at such high altitudes. I believe I can do better next time.”

Katherine Tsang, Chief Executive Officer of Standard Chartered Bank China, said, “We are very proud of Ms Liu and her achievements. It was a difficult and challenging race. We are confident that our Chinese athletes will continue to have outstanding performance in the three remaining races.”

578 runners, double of the number of runners from last year, will compete in The Greatest Race on Earth 2005/06 Series with its record prize pool of $1.57 million. The Greatest Race on Earth is the world’s only relay of marathons, and spans across four countries in Asia and Africa.

There are 32 professional teams competing in this year’s event, with participation of the quickest debut marathoner ever, Joseph Oso of Kenya and with former world record holder and marathon great Tegla Loroupe from Kenya participating in the new women's event. Runners will battle altitude, heat and humidity to better last year's winning team time of four marathons in 09:11:32.

Each team comprise of four individuals, each running one marathon in Nairobi, Singapore, Mumbai or Hong Kong. The Chinese team - sponsored by Standard Chartered Bank, China - is made up of four professional women runners who have substantial experience in international races. They are:

Nairobi Marathon (already held on 23 Oct 05): LIU Xiaohuan, born on 5th March, 1987, finished in the 3rd place with a time of 02:50:13 in the women's category of Nairobi Marathon.

Singapore Marathon: WANG Xiaoshu, born on 7th December, 1986, is the Champion of 2004 Kuala Lumpur International Marathon. Her marathon personal best time is 2:34.

Mumbai Marathon: WANG Dan, born on 6th July, 1987, is the Champion of 2005 Kuala Lumpur International Marathon. Her marathon personal best time is 2:34.

Hong Kong Marathon: DAI Yanyan, born on 8th January, 1980, is the Champion of 2004 Macau International Marathon and Champion of 2005 Hong Kong Standard Chartered International Marathon. Her marathon personal best time is 2:24.
