Standard Chartered Bank opens branch at the Achimota Retail Centre

4th May 2016, Accra – Standard Chartered Bank, Ghana’s premier bank today opened a new ultra modern branch at the Achimota Retail Centre.

This is a smart branch, which combines traditional and digital banking with all the modern amenities and is the bank’s way of assuring the general public, especially patrons who conduct business within that location, of the Bank’s commitment to get closer to its cherished customers and increase the convenience with which business is transacted.

Present at the launch of the new branch was a team from Banking Supervision, Bank of Ghana, customers of the old Achimota Branch and staff of the bank.

Standard Chartered plans to digitize all processes to offer speedy services to its customers. Additionally, it believes in deepening the relationship with customers through the continuous engagement on its electronic and well tested platforms which offer value for money.

Kweku Bedu-Addo, CEO, Standard Chartered Bank, Ghana, said the branch offers advanced and state-of-the-art technology and traditional mode of banking to deliver unparalleled service to customers. He reiterated the need for the bank to pay attention to responsive and respectful customer service. He advised staff to stay abreast with financial risk management and especially pay attention to anti-money laundering and terrorism financing procedures by conducting due diligence on clients.
