Standard Chartered's Priority Banking unveils flagship Centre

For release on Monday 13 February 2017 please

10 February 2017, Colombo, Sri Lanka – Standard Chartered's Priority Banking unveiled its flagship Centre at 22A Sir Marcus Fernando Mawatha, Colombo 7 at a ceremony graced by clients and staff. The centre optimizes Standard Chartered's network presence in the city of Colombo and will be the exclusive focal service point for the bank's Priority Banking clients.

Jim McCabe, Chief Executive Officer, Standard Chartered, commenting on the new centre said: "Our Priority Banking Proposition strives to make global banking simpler. I am confident that our dedicated relationship managers will continue to ensure that we deliver a personalized approach to solutions that would complement the investment objectives of our clients, from this especially dedicated space: A 360° service to match our 360° rewards program."

Standard Chartered's Priority Banking offering is available to clients with a banking relationship of LKR 5 Million or equivalent in any other currency in a savings or fixed deposit account, or to those who draw a nett monthly salary of LKR 400,000 minimum. Standard Chartered welcomes queries, and these maybe made online via the website, www.sc.com/lk, or by calling the hotlines on 0112480777 or 0112480480.
