

Credit Card payments through SLIPs to cease after 30th June 2017

In compliance with the Payment Card Industry Data Security Standard requirements, the Credit Card settlements using the Sri Lanka Interbank Payment System, commonly known as SLIPS will not be available with effect from 30th June 2017.

As such, SLIPS will not be an acceptable method for paying both Standard Chartered Credit Cards and other bank Credit Card payments using the Standard Chartered transfer services (via Online Banking and requests submitted on paper). Such payments will be returned by the beneficiary bank.

Payments may be made at the the closest Standard Chartered branch Deposit Kiosk machines or alternatively via Third party locations such as Arpico Super Centre, Keels Super, Singer, Sisil World outlets, Lanka Bell and Commercial Bank branches for a nominal handling fee.
