24. Standard Chartered Cup 2016 tournament format, rules and regulations are laid out in appendix 1. The Bank and / or Liverpool FC reserves the right to change the format, rules and regulations. These will be enforced by the referee, whose decision is final.

Appendix 1: Standard Chartered Cup 2016: tournament format, rules and regulations:

i) Tournament rules and regulations

The following rules and regulations will apply to the Standard Chartered Cup 2016 tournament. Teams will be informed of any changes to the above rules on the match day in advance of play. If you have any further questions, please contact your Standard Chartered team representative.

ii) Number of players

- Each match shall be played by two (2) teams of five (5) players, including the goalkeeper. A team shall comprise five (5) players and two (2) reserves, making a total of seven (7) members.
- Any of the other players may change places with the goalkeeper, provided that the referee is informed before the change is made, and that the change is made during a stoppage in the game.
- The Rules of the Competition allow for “rolling” substitutes to be used. The number of “rolling” substitutions is unlimited.
- This tournament is only open for armature players.

iii) Players' Equipment

- Footwear shall be worn in accordance with the Laws of the Game, and subject to any local regulations. (No metal studs or metal blades)
- The wearing of shin guards, which must be covered by socks in accordance with the Laws of the Game, is compulsory. Any player who fails to wear shin guards does so at their own risk.

iv) Timekeeper / scorer

The referee shall:

- Record goals scored
- Act as timekeeper and signify full-time by a whistle
- Supervise the use of “rolling” substitutes

v) Duration of the game

The duration of the game shall be 10 minute matches with a 5 minute break in-between games. No allowances will be made in games for stoppages except in extreme circumstances.

vi) Start of play

- At the beginning of a game the choice of ends and kick off shall be decided by the toss of a coin.
- Play shall be started with a normal kick off at the centre of the pitch.
- The game shall be re-started in like manner after a goal has been scored.
- After any other stoppage the game shall be re-started by the referee dropping the ball at a point nearest to where it was when play was suspended, unless it was in the goalkeeper's possession, when the player shall, at the referee's signal, roll or pass the ball out.

vii) Ball in and out of play

The ball shall be in play at all times from the start of the game unless:

- The ball has crossed the goal-line, side-lines or the barricades surrounding the playing area;
- The referee has given the signal for full-time;
- The game has been stopped by the referee;
- When the ball goes out of play a member of the opposing team shall pass the ball into play.
- You cannot score directly from a pass in (throw in) viii) Offside

There is no offside. Players may place themselves in any part of the playing area

ix) Fouls and misconduct

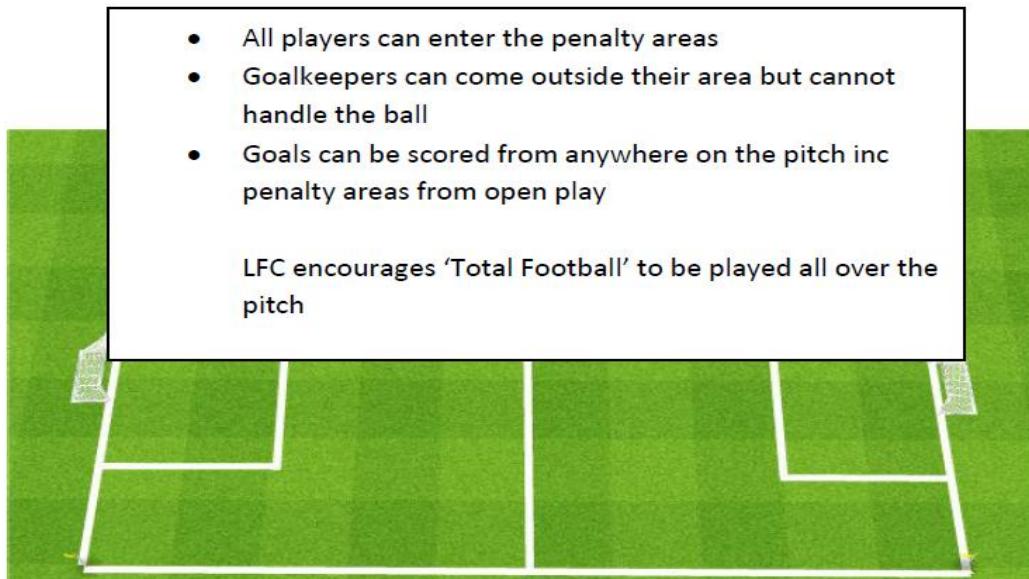

- A player who unfairly impedes the progress of an opponent when not playing the ball shall be penalised by the awarding of an indirect free kick.
- A player who is sent off shall not be allowed to take any further part in matches during that stage (minimum 2 matches). No substitute is allowed for a player dismissed for misconduct during the game in which the offence occurred.

x) Free kick / Penalty kick

- Free kick: When a player is taking a direct or indirect free kick all of the opposing players shall be at least 6 yards from the ball until it is in play. All free kicks given against the defending side for infringements committed in or near the penalty area shall be taken from where the free kick was awarded.

- Penalty kick: A penalty kick shall be taken 10 yards from the centre of the goal being attacked, and except for the defending goalkeeper, only the player taking the kick can enter the penalty area until they take the penalty kick.
- All players can enter in their own and opponents penalty areas at any time apart from penalty kicks. Only the penalty taker and Goalkeeper are allowed in the penalty area until the penalty kick has been taken.

xi) Goalkeeper returning the ball into play

- All goal kicks start with a throw. Remember they cannot go overhead height.
- After holding the ball the goalkeeper must immediately return the ball into play with a throw
- Goalkeepers must not hold onto the ball for more than 6 seconds. In the event of this happening the referee will award an indirect free kick.

If goalkeepers receive the ball from open play, they can pass it with their feet. If they decide to pick it up then they must throw the ball.

xii) General rules of the game

Apart from the above rules the matches will be run as a normal game. Overhead height is permitted at all times.

25. These Terms and Conditions are governed by the laws of Sri Lanka and any dispute will be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the court of Sri Lanka.
