Standard Chartered Bank, Nepal has been named as the winner of 'Best Managed Financial Institution 2014' Award in the Newbiz Business Conclave & Awards held yesterday in Kathmandu. New Business Age Private Limited, a leading Business Media house in Nepal, has instituted this Award and has been holding the Awards & Conclave for the past two years.

The Best Managed Commercial Bank Award 2014 was handed over to Joseph Silvanus, Chief Executive Officer at the award ceremony. The Award has been adjudged on the basis of various financial and non-financial parameters and was decided by a jury appointed by the organizers. A number of banks and financial institutions had filed nomination for this award. There were various other categories of Awards that were distributed during the ceremony.

Speaking on the occasion, Mr Silvanus expressed his happiness for the honor received by the Bank and expressed commitment of the Bank to remain business partners of entrepreneurs who are dedicated to the nation development. He expressed that the Bank will continue to truly live its brand promise – Here for good in Nepal.

Earlier in the year, Standard Chartered Bank Nepal had bagged two international awards viz The World's Best Emerging Markets Banks 2014 for Nepal and the Best Consumer Internet Bank in Nepal by the Global Finance Magazine.
