

Press Release

Thursday, 12 March 2015

Global Finance names Standard Chartered Bank, Nepal as 'The World's Best Emerging Markets Banks 2015' for Nepal.

Standard Chartered Bank, Nepal has been named as the winner of 'The Global Finance World's Best Banks 2015 Awards' for Nepal by the Global Finance magazine. The Bank shares the title of 'The World's Best Emerging Markets Banks In Asia-Pacific 2015' along with other winners in the region by Global Finance magazine.

Global Finance magazine has named the World's Best Emerging Markets Banks in Asia-Pacific in an exclusive survey to be published in the May 2015 issue. Global Finance editors—with input from industry analysts, corporate executives and banking consultants—selected the best emerging markets bank in the region and in 25 countries. Criteria for choosing the winners included growth in assets, profitability, strategic relationships, customer service, competitive pricing, and innovative products.

This is the twenty-second year that the magazine has selected top banking performers in emerging markets. The report covers best banks in Latin America, Central & Eastern Europe, Asia-Pacific, the Middle East and Africa.

This is the second time in a row that Standard Chartered Nepal has bagged this Award.

Commenting on this achievement, the CEO of Standard Chartered Nepal, Joseph Silvanus said: "I am happy to note that the Bank has been recognized as an organization that consistently maintains the fabric of good governance, quality of the balance sheet, the independency of the management and top notch asset quality. Such Awards encourage us to constantly pursue excellence in our journey."