Standard Chartered opens its Branch in Boudha, Bhatbhateni Supermarket premises

Standard Chartered Bank Nepal today inaugurated its branch in Boudha at the Bhatbhateni Supermarket premises. Chief Executive Officer of Standard Chartered Bank Nepal, Joseph Silvanus, inaugurated the new branch of the Bank at a special ceremony held in the branch premises.

The Bank aspires to play a key role in meeting the banking need of the population residing in this area. Boudha, apart from being a tourist destination, is a catchment area for North Eastern part of the Kathmandu valley. The branch is equipped to provide a wide range of Retail products available at Standard Chartered.

Ammar Husain, Executive Director of Client Relationship, Retail Clients, Standard Chartered Bank Nepal stated: "The branch, conceptualised as a 'boutique branch', has been designed and staffed to showcase our efficient, professional client experience. This will enable us to establish us as the digital main bank, an agenda which we are pursuing aggressively"
