

press release

Wednesday, 8 November 2017

Daniel Rex, CEO- Toastmasters International visits SCB Nepal Toastmasters Club

Toastmaster Daniel Rex, Chief Executive Officer of Toastmasters International (TI) attended the 19th meeting of Standard Chartered Bank Nepal Toastmasters Club on 8 Nov 2017. Toastmaster Rex is on a two-days official visit to Nepal.

During the Bank's Toastmasters Club meeting held at the Bank, he handed over a certificate from the Toastmasters Internationals to Joseph Silvanus, CEO of the Bank in commemoration of the 1st anniversary of the Club.

Toastmaster Rex appreciated the efforts of the Bank in establishing a Club within and explained how employees of the Bank can benefit by attending and participating in Toastmaster meetings. He further mentioned that the Bank employees can apply the leadership and communication skills learnt through these platforms in enhancing their career path. Joseph Silvanus, CEO of the Bank, encouraged member employees to make the most out of the Toastmasters platform provided by the Bank.

-----ENDS-----

Toastmasters International is a USA headquartered non-profit educational organization that operates 16,400 clubs worldwide for the purpose of helping members improve their communication, public speaking, and leadership skills.

SCB Nepal Toastmasters Club is an in-house club and a member of Toastmasters International founded in November 2016 with an aim of improving the leadership and communications skills of its employees. The club has successfully completed 19 meetings since its inception so far. SCB Nepal Toastmasters Club is one of the 9 Toastmasters clubs operating in Nepal; all 9 Toastmasters club are clubbed together under District 41 which includes large group of Toastmaster clubs representing North and East India, Bangladesh, Nepal and Bhutan.