

JET AIRWAYS

press release

30 May 2017

Jet Airways announces exciting travel offer for Standard Chartered Bank customers

Guests can avail up to 15% discount on base fares for Premiere and Economy travel to destinations in India, and the airline's international network until October 15, 2017

Jet Airways, India's full-service premiere international airline, is collaborating with Standard Chartered Bank to offer the bank's customers attractive discounts on fares for travel from Kathmandu to destinations in India, and beyond, over Mumbai and Delhi, on the airline's direct network. Standard Chartered Bank guests can avail these special fares for Premiere and Economy travel using special promotional codes, on offer.

Jet Airways will enhance travel offerings for all Standard Chartered Bank customers, where Priority account holders can avail of 15% rebate on base fares. Additionally, all debit and credit card holders of the bank can avail a 10% discount on base fares. The offer is only available for tickets booked through the airline website, jetairways.com.

The special fare sale will be open for bookings until October 15, 2017 with travel validity till December 31, 2017. Guests are required to present their Standard Chartered issued Debit / Credit Cards the time of their travel.

Joseph Silvanus, CEO of Standard Chartered Nepal expressed his happiness on this exclusive arrangement; he further mentioned that this is an example how Standard Chartered is instrumental in offering differentiated products and services to its clients.

Colin Neubronner Sr. Vice President, Sales & Marketing, Jet Airways, said, "Our association with Standard Chartered Bank is yet another testament of our commitment of providing value to our guests on each step of their journey. We are confident that these special fares will be well received by the Bank's customers."

- ENDS -