Standard Chartered Bank holds back to back donation of computers in Cebu

24 August, 2016 Philippines – Standard Chartered Bank recently donated computers to two community schools in Cebu - Curva High School in Medellin in partnership with Children's Hour and Bantayan Central Elementary School in Bantayan Island in partnership with Philippine Business for Social Progress.

The initiative is aligned with the bank's sustainability agenda which largely focuses on health and education particularly of the youth. Standard Chartered Bank recognizes that education plays a significant role in building a progressive community and the computers will give the students opportunity to build technological skills and make them competitive in this computer-enabled society."

Standard Chartered Bank's commitment to the community is not only to help boost the economy. The bank also aspires to do the right thing by supporting the growth of the communities where they operate.
