Standard Chartered Bank and PBSP promote IT literacy in Samar

15 September, 2016 Philippines – Standard Chartered Bank donated twenty-three (23) computers to the District Department of Education of Catabalogan Samar in partnership with corporate-led NGO Philippine Business for Social Progress. The computers will be distributed to the different public schools in the province to support IT literacy amongst Catbalogan students. Schools Division Superintendent Cristito Eco and Catbalogan City Mayor Stephany Uy-Tan received the computers from Standard Chartered Bank in a simple turnover ceremony held recently.

Standard Chartered Bank's Head of Corporate Affairs/Brand and Marketing Mai Sangalang says, "Standard Chartered Bank's computer donation is aligned with the bank's sustainability agenda which largely focuses on health and education particularly of the youth. We believe that education is strongly linked to the progress of a community and in this digital world, the bank recognizes the need to help students build their technological skills to be globally competitive."

Standard Chartered Bank's aspiration is beyond being an economic partner to the country. It also seeks to do the right thing by supporting the growth of the communities where it operates.
