Lynette Ortiz, Managing Director and Head of International Corporates and Financial Institutions (IC/FI), Philippines

Standard Chartered appoints new corporate banking head

Standard Chartered Bank has appointed Lynette Ortiz as Managing Director and Head of International Corporates and Financial Institutions (ICFI) for the Philippines effective 01 June 2016.

Ortiz returns to Manila from her regional posting as Head of Capital Markets for ASEAN based in Singapore. In recent years, Ortiz led a number of landmark transactions for ASEAN issuers, in both domestic and international markets. Prior to assuming her regional role, she was the Financial Markets and Capital Markets Head for the Philippines.

“We are delighted that Lynette will be returning to the Philippines as she is a highly regarded banker both locally and within the region. Given her extensive banking experience, knowledge of our markets and strong client relationships, she will play a key role as we continue to strengthen our Corporate and Institutional Banking business,” said Anirvan Ghosh Dastidar, CEO of Standard Chartered Philippines.

Ortiz has over 25 years of extensive experience starting with Citibank in New York. Subsequently, she has held senior roles in Risk Management, Treasury, Corporate Finance and Capital Markets in foreign and local institutions.

Prior to joining Standard Chartered in 2011, Ortiz was the President of Citicorp Capital Philippines and was responsible for coverage, advisory and capital markets requirements of Citi’s institutional relationships.
