Standard Chartered Bank receives Diamond and Special Project Award from Philippine Red Cross

22 August, 2016 Philippines – Standard Chartered Bank was among the organisations recognised by the Philippine Red Cross in an Appreciation Event for Partners recently held recently at the Manila Polo Club. Standard Chartered Corporate Affairs and Brand and Marketing Head Mai Sangalang and other bank officers received the certificate of recognition from the officials of the Philippine Red Cross Rizal Chapter.

The oldest foreign bank in the country was given the Diamond and Special Project Award for its donation of USD 20,000 used to provide shelter repair kits and cash grant programming for forty-five families from Eastern Samar affected by Typhoon Ruby in 2015.

Training and workshop on P.A.S.S.A. (Participatory Approach on Safe Shelter Awareness) was also provided to promote awareness, improve knowledge and skills on housing repair and sustainability.
