

press release

19 February 2015

Standard Chartered Bank (Thai)'s Priority and International Clients unit presents the first kid mascot from Thailand to lead the Reds onto the Anfield

Bangkok – Standard Chartered Bank (Thai)'s Priority and International Clients gave a 7-year-old girl Vithapon Tangkittiwet (left) a money-can't-buy experience when she became the first kid mascot from Thailand to lead Liverpool players onto the Anfield. Vithapon pictured with Jordan Henderson, midfielder for Liverpool FC and the English national team, following the home game against West Ham United at the end of January. Vithapon and her parents received an exclusive prize comprising Bangkok-Liverpool round-trip ticket, airport limousine, 3-night accommodation, and 3 match-day tickets, worth a total of THB 283,500 courtesy of "Member Get Member," a member referral campaign by Standard Chartered Bank (Thai)'s Priority and International Clients unit.

For further information, please contact: Trongjate Namwong 02 724 8024 or Trongjate.Namwong@sc.com