Information on Finance Charging Mechanism - Credit Cards

Finance charges (interest) will apply if full payment is not received on the due date

Finance charges (interest) will also apply even if part / minimum payment is made on / before or after the due date.

Finance charges (interest) will apply if full payment is made after the due date.

Finance charges (interest) for part / minimum payments will be calculated on the full outstanding balance from the last statement date until payment receipt date and thereafter on the balance outstanding until the next statement date.

For full payments made after the due date, finance charges (interest) will be calculated on the outstanding balance from the statement date until payment receipt date. Where there have been no payments, finance charges (interest) will be calculated on the outstanding balance from the last statement date until the new statement date.

Cash advances will accrue finance charges (interest) from the transaction date until paid in full.

No finance charges (interest) will be levied (except on cash advances) if full payment is made on or before the due date.

Please note:

- The Bank reserves the right to change any or all of the above fees, at its sole discretion by giving a 10 day period notice to the Cardholder
- No refund of annual fees will be made if the card is terminated or not accepted.
- Additional expenses, such as legal fees, credit transfers, cheque issuance and overseas charges (eg. courier, fax, postage etc.) will be levied where incurred.
- Government charges will be applicable as per prevailing regulations.
- Charges for services not indicated in this guide are available on request.
- Other terms & conditions apply. Please refer Cardholder agreement.
