

Culture Day comes to Mauritius on a Global Scale – Friday 28 September 2012

- Each function was responsible to show the cultural diversity of a continent
- Staff pulled together as a team to creatively transform the office into Africa, Asia, Americas, Australasia, Europe & Middle East
- Tantalising dishes from around the world for everyone to sample
- Each team shared interesting facts about as many countries in each continent
- Cowboys, Arabs, Africans, Indians, Australians, Malaysians, Thai, Indonesians, Singaporeans and Japanese costumes were worn by staff
- Office was buzzing with music, dance, laughter, interactive quizzes and surprises throughout the day celebrating Culture Day

Staff testimonials

“Culture Day was a beautiful demonstration of teamwork and sharing on all sides. It showed that each of us holds within us that special spark called ‘inspiration’, which when brought together can set ablaze the most awesome firework of creativity!”

“There is no better example of togetherness of cultures and values than what was expressed on the Culture day. The Queen of Thailand was delighted by visiting the whole world at SCBM. I am really proud to be part of such a big family. Thank you...D & I”.

“This event made us feel truly united and staff will be talking about this successful event for years to come.”

Message from CEO

“I am truly amazed and proud of the wonderful display of energy and enthusiasm from each and every member of the team to make the D&I Council's initiative a grand success. Hearty Congratulations to you all for making our first Culture Day a day to remember!”
