Standard Chartered Bank (SCB), through its global COVID-19 fund aid, donates protective personal equipment (PPEs) to help augment the limited medical supplies in the country. In partnership with NGO Philippine Business for Social Progress and fundraising platform Bayanihan Musikahan, the bank is giving more than 6,600 PPE sets which include reusable coveralls, shoe covers and face shields to 20 hospitals and treatment centers in the National Capital Region.

SCB Head of Corporate Affairs, Brand and Marketing Mai Sangalang, together with bank volunteers, delivered more than 1,000 PPE sets to Medical Center Muntinlupa (MCM), San Lorenzo Ruiz Women's Hospital (SLRMC) in Malabon and Among Rodriguez Memorial Medical Center (ARMMC) in Marikina. These were received by MCM Nursing Director Renie Malvas, SLRMC Medical Center Chief Dra. Marilou Nery and ARMMC Administrative Officer Nelson Sobredo.

"Our healthcare workers and first responders bear the brunt of the coronavirus and they rely on PPEs to protect themselves. We are very happy to be able to help keep our frontline heroes safe. Despite the strong winds of Typhoon Ambo, it was a commitment to deliver the much-needed PPEs last Friday. Solidarity will beat COVID-19!" Sangalang said.

Reynaldo Antonio D. Laguda, Executive Director of PBSP said, "Standard Chartered has long been a partner of PBSP in projects that reach out to more underserved areas nationwide. Now that the COVID-19 pandemic is hitting us, we need to be more united as a community to help the most vulnerable in the country."

Other beneficiary hospitals are RITM Muntinlupa, San Lazaro Hospital, UP-PGH, Delos Santos Medical Center, Victor R. Potenciano Medical Center, San Juan de Dios Medical Center, Rizal Medical Center, Medical Center Taguig, Trinity Medical Center, Cardinal Santos Medical Center, United Doctors Medical Center, World Citi Medical Center, Medical Center Manila, Cruz-Rabe Hospital, Dr. Jose M. Rodriguez Memorial Hospital, Las Pinas General Hospital, and Quirino Medical Center.
