

Standard Chartered Bank Donates THB3.2 Mln to Ensure Southern Hospitals are Inclusive in Fighting Against Covid-19

12 May 2020, Bangkok – Standard Chartered Bank (Thai) donated THB3,265,000 to the Thai Red Cross Society in a bid to help alleviate those impacted from the covid-19 pandemic. To ensure even those who live far from central Bangkok are inclusive, THB 2,765,000 of the total donation, will be utilised specifically at hospitals in far south provinces namely Yala Hospital, Naradhiwas Rajanagarindra Hospital and Pattani Hospital. Another THB 500,000 will be channeled to procure the protective tools for the medical staff including masks and Personal Protective Equipment (PPE). The latter portion of fund is the Bank’s donation to the Thai Red Cross Society in collaboration with the Thai Bankers’ Association as the collective Banking industry’s contribution to fight against COVID-19.
