

Standard Chartered's Young Innovators Awards 2012

10 July 2012

Standard Chartered Bank (Thai) and The National Electronics and Computer Technology Centre (NECTEC) jointly organise 'Standard Chartered's Young Innovators Awards 2012'. University students are encouraged to team up at maximum of 3 to submit their innovative banking products or services in 4 categories to win more than 200,000-Baht prizes and an exclusive trip to Singapore for the winning team. Students can submit their ideas from now until 1 August 2012. For more information, please visit www.standardchartered.co.th/young-innovators-awards/ or Standard Chartered Thailand's Facebook fan page.

In picture: Mr. Supoj Surithpinyo, Head of System Development (3rd left) and Mr. Rapeeporn Klawtanonk, Country Head of Talent Acquisition -Human Resources (2nd right) are on the University road show to promote the competition.