

Standard Chartered is committed to comply with economic sanctions that are imposed by relevant regulatory authorities.

Standard Chartered is committed to comply with economic sanctions that are imposed by relevant regulatory authorities. As such, we do not allow our products and services to be used directly or indirectly in countries that are subject to such sanctions, and will not process transactions which involve these countries. Please note that you will not be able to contact us via phone banking, facsimile transmission, or emails, or access our website and online banking, and we will not be able to provide you with financial services if you are in these countries. We will also not process payment or trade transactions that involve these countries. Currently, countries that are subject to economic sanctions are Cuba, Iran, North Korea, Sudan and Syria.